

Dec. 12, 2014

Dear Jefferson Area parents and guardians,

As we noted in the letter last week, we are planning Community Conversations to gather your input and feedback on how we can work collaboratively to build successful futures for our students in the Jefferson-area. These dates have been finalized and we are sharing them with you now in hopes that you will be able to plan to attend one of these opportunities for us to hear your voice.

Jefferson-area Community Meetings

Date & Time	Location	Purpose
December 18, 2014 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.	Wheat Ridge 5-8 Middle School	A presentation on the Jefferson-area draft Innovation Plan to enable parents and community members an opportunity to learn more about the need for enhancements to support student success
January 6 th 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.	Edgewater Elementary School	Conversation to gather input on supports for student success & feedback on the draft framework
January 8 th 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.	Jefferson High School	Conversation to gather input on supports for student success & feedback on the draft framework
January 15 th 8:00 to 10:00 a.m.	Lumberg Elementary School	Conversation to gather input on supports for student success & feedback on the draft framework

We realize the meeting on December 18th may be a conflict for families due to Hanukkah or other family events. The meeting will be recorded and available on a public website. You are also welcome to attend any of the other meetings listed above.

We seek your input and support as we work toward our goal to ensure that every Jefferson-area student is actively engaged and enthusiastic about their learning and feels supported and valued in our schools. In addition to the community meetings noted above, we also invite you to participate in your School Accountability Committee to change the future of our schools.

Sincerely,

Celeste Sultze, principal,
Edgewater Elementary
School

Michael James, interim
